'Game Shows' is Homecoming Theme

Homecoming 1991 was a very special night. It was filled with many activities.

During halftime the near silent crowd roared as Krissy Trombley was chosen as queen. The night continued as the sophomores took first place for their float and tied with the juniors for overall spirit.

To make the night a success, the football team defeated the USA Patriots, 22-0. A dance at the high school completed the evening.

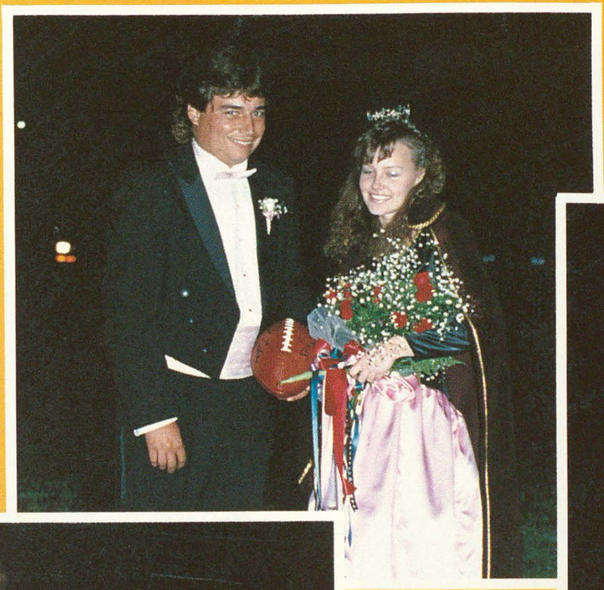

1 — The winning float, "Wheel of Victory" was built by the sophomore class. 2 — The cheerleaders brighten the Homecoming parade by cheering for the crowd. 3 — Heather McKinstry crowns Krissy Trombley, the new 1991 queen. 4 — Matt Bouvy blocks a Patriot player as Ed Ketelhut tries to make a touchdown.

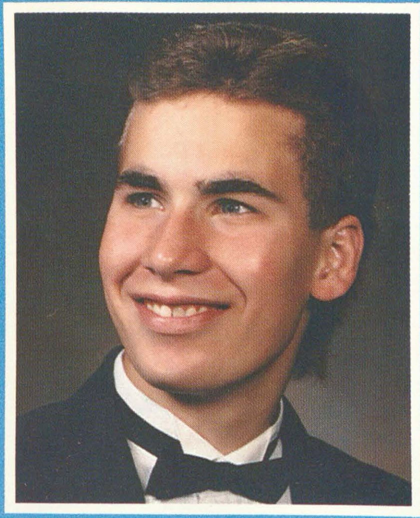

Clockwise from the top: Queen Kris Trombley and Tom Perkins; Stefanie Benson and Justin Moore; Michelle Wagner and Matt Eskilsen; Amy Sage and Dan Schluckbier; Stacey Yockey and Joel Krauss.

Class Of 1991 Had A Very Busy Four Years At RHS!

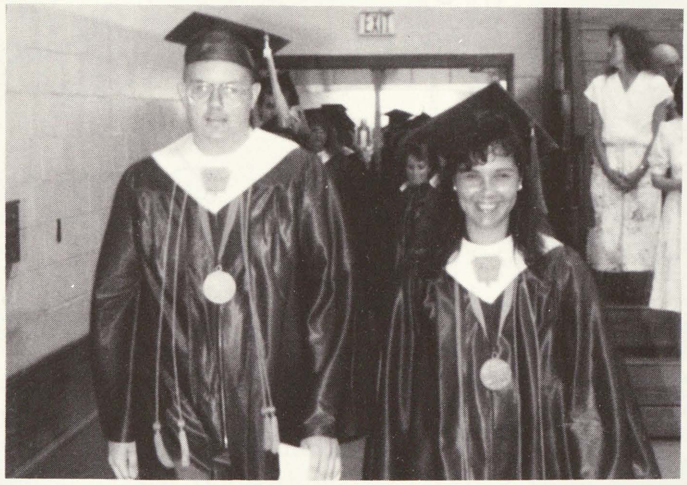

1 — The senior homecoming float "Family Fued", followed the game show theme. 2 — Class officers included: Kari Kurtansky, secretary; Matt Schiefer, president; Melissa Kerns, treasurer; and Joel Krauss, vice-president. 3 — Heidi Tolloff and Matt Schiefer led the class of '91 as valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively.

The class of 1991 has had a busy four years. During our freshmen year we sold chocolate Easter bunnies. Our sophomore year consisted of going to visit the skill center and taking drivers' ed. in the summer.

Our Junior year we put on a great prom for the senior's at Delta College. And before we knew it we were seniors! As seniors, we would only have a little time left at RHS and then we would all go on to college, jobs, or the military.

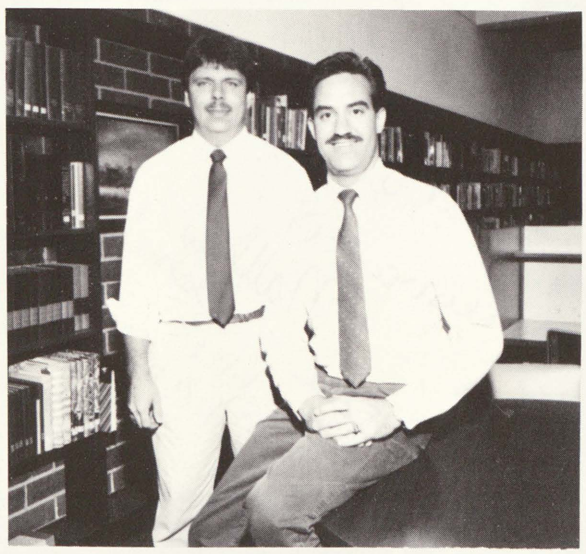

Best of luck, Seniors!

Weather Conditions Postpone 1991 Comehoming Festivities

Comehoming 1991 was held on Saturday, February 15, due to weather conditions the night before. The dance was held on Friday anyway.

This years theme was Fairytales. Sophomores won hall decorations, and Juniors won float, spirit, and overall awards.

The game was played well even though the Rockets were defeated by the Harbor Beach Pirates.

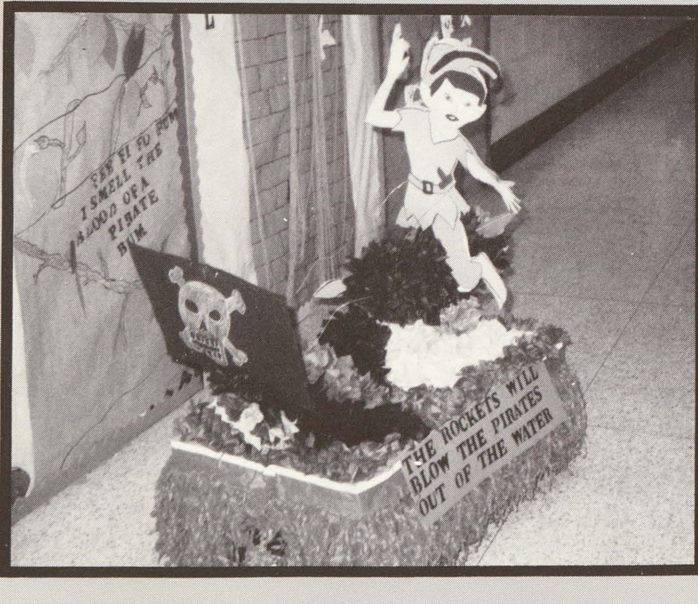

Scott Curtis crowns this year's 1991 King, Kevin Weber.

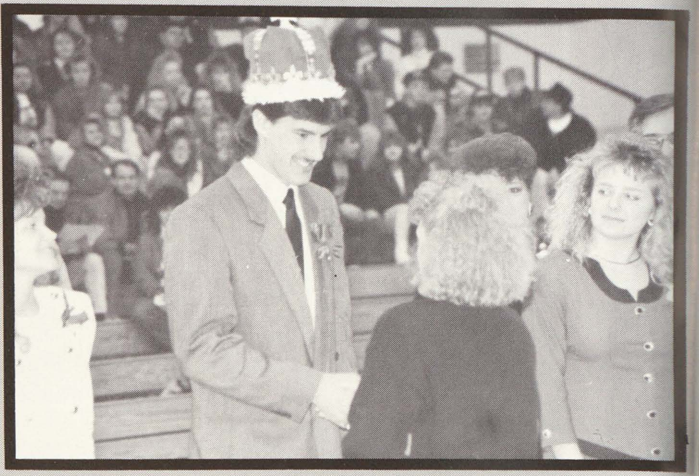

This year's Comehoming dance was on Valentine's Day and was held on Friday before Saturday's game.

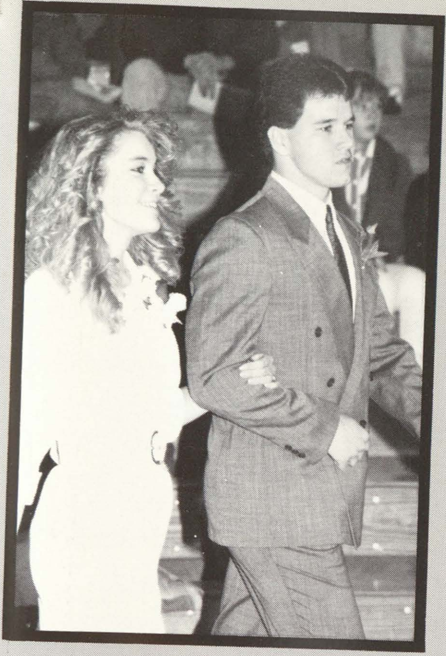

The cheerleaders performed a skit about the Varsity team at the Comhoming pep assembly.

This year's Seniors float stated that "The Rockets Will Blow The Pirate Out of The Water."

Stacey Yockey, Student Council President, shakes Kevin Weber's hand congratulating him for being chosen King.

We Go "Miles Away" At Junior-Senior Prom

The theme for the 1991 prom was "Miles Away." The prom was sponsored by the junior class on April 20.

Following the prom was the after-prom party held at "Cinema and Suds." The festivities were from 12:30 until 4 a.m. Pizza, pop and other refreshments were provided throughout the night.

"Roulette", "Black Jack" and "Big Six" made it possible for the kids to purchase items at the auction toward the end of the night. The Grand Prize, a 24-inch color T.V. and VCR was awarded by a drawing to Paul Jones.

Above: Brad Lethorn and Heide Tolloff spend a little time playing "Roulette." Below: Tia Gulczinski and Jodi Purman concentrate on getting "Black Jack."

Class Of '91 Finishes With June 2 Graduation

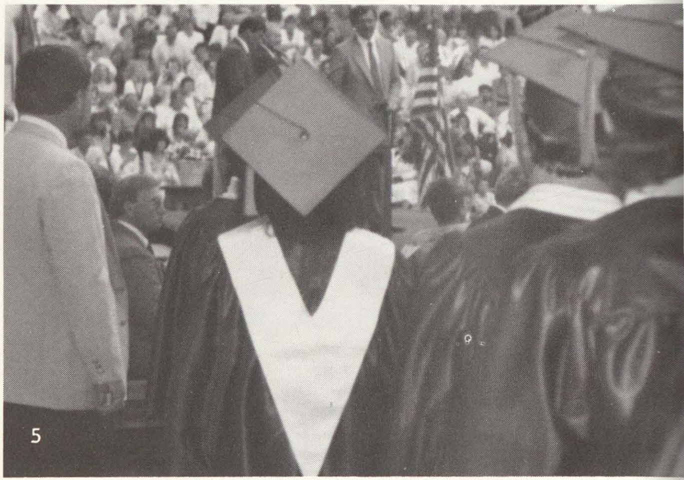

June 2 had finally arrived and reality hit the class of '91. Sadness filled the graduates, but relief and a sense of freedom touched them also.

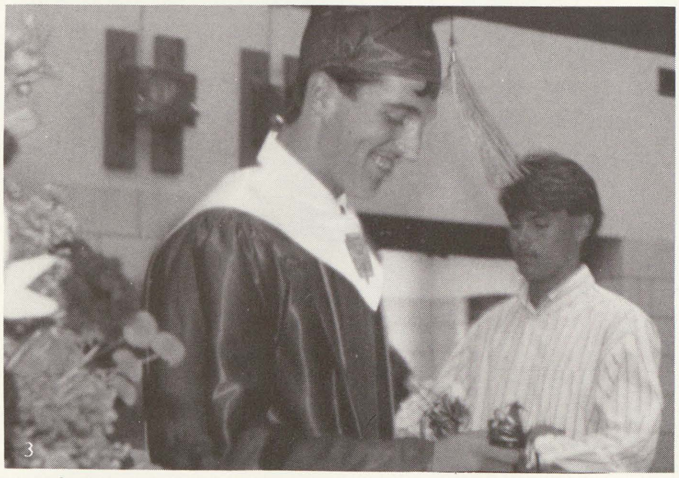

For some, the realization of maybe never again seeing some of their closest friends for the past four years hit home. Some of these people would be going away to dedicate themselves to the military, the work place, or even some kind of permanent vacation to some other state. They made it together, and together they will impact the world.

Juniors Have Hectic Year

The entire class of '92 was very involved this year. They sold M & M's to try and make the April 20 Junior-Senior prom the most outstanding ever. They were also busy preparing for the April 13 ACT testing.

For Homecoming the theme was "Board Games". The juniors picked the $92,000 pyramid and they won spirit week and tied with the sophomores for overall spirit. The theme for Comehoming was "Fairytails — Nursery Rhymes". They picked "The Little Mermaid" and won float, spirit week, and over-all-spirit.

Sophomores Face Exciting Year

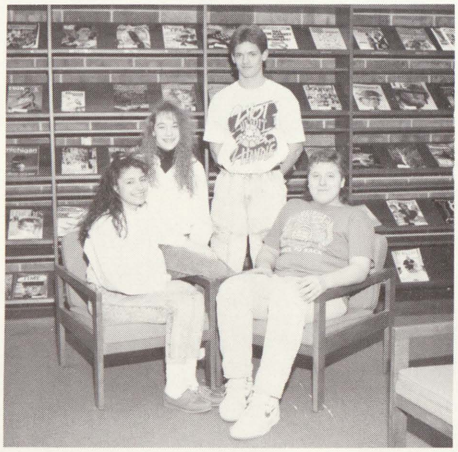

The sophomores finished their second year of high school with a lot of memorable experiences. Among these were Homecoming, Comehoming, and Driver's Education.

They already knew what the big sports nights were, but learning how to drive was totally new to them.

The year was filled with many other activities. The winter semiformal and other dances were enjoyed by all, along with Mr. Bird's World History class.

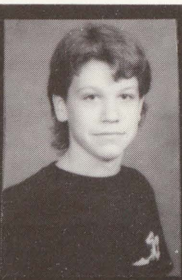

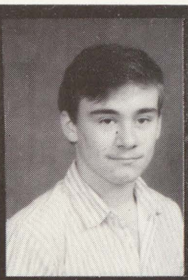

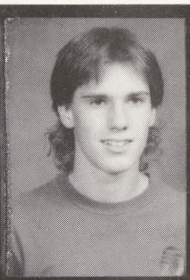

The school year was quite interesting, showing the Class of '93 that being a sophomore wasn't boring.

The class of 1993 seemed to be a float frenzy their first year of high school. This year was no different. They greeted each pep assembly with loud cheers, especially Homecoming. And when that night was over, they walked away with first place in float building and a tie in overall spirit.

At this year's second annual bonfire, the sophomores came ready for a party. When the fire was lit, they did just that.

They treated Comehoming in much the same way. One thing for sure about this class; they may be small, but they have spirit.

The Class Of '94 Will We Make It?

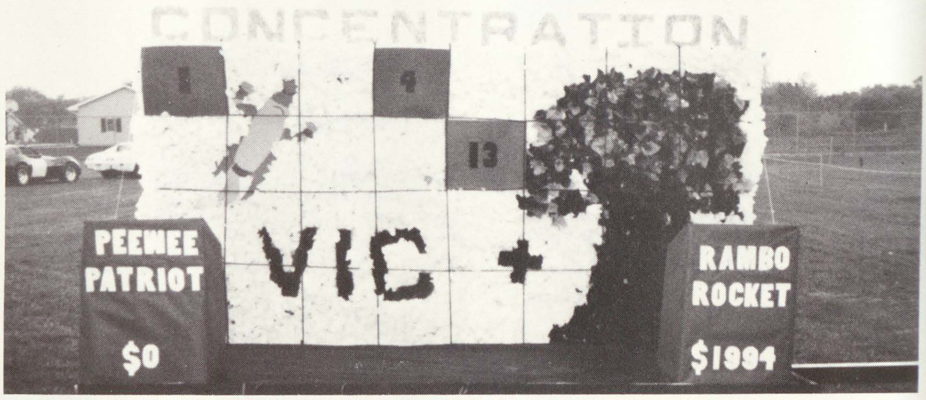

The freshman class spent a great deal of time at the beginning of the year adjusting to "high school life."

The freshman were not too lucky at winning anything for homecoming this year, but that doesn't mean they were not in the spirit of the festivities. They really worked hard at building the float, and screaming and yelling in an attempt to win the spirit award.

The class of 1994 would like to thank their advisors, Mr. Elliott and Mr. Brown for all of their help and support. we really appreciate you.

The Class Of '94 we finally made it

Left: Serving as class officers for the class '94 were: Mandy Brown, vice-president; Jennifer VanOoteghem, secretary; Jill Fisher, treasurer; and Bobbi Kennedy, president. Below: Smiling as the end of the year nears, class advisors Mr. Brown and Mr. Elliot relax in the library.

Slowly but surely the year wore on . . . each day a new experience. We survived the upperclassmen's jokes, the fun filled swirlies, and the unbelievable homework load.

Surviving the tormenting of the upperclassmen is work enough, but continuing with daily homework gives us a full schedule. The seniors may have thought we were getting weak at the beginning of the year, but we came back to show them we could take whatever they gave us.

Now after struggling through our freshman year, we plan to come back and do our best as sophomores next year.

Student Council has a regenerating year

The Reese High School Student Council sponsors many events throughout the school year. Highlights of these events include the various dances, the food drive for the needy, freshman orientation, and the teacher appreciation breakfast.

The members also attended a Leadership Forum in March. This forum helped to improve their skills as school leaders. It will also help the seniors who plan on going to college and those undergraduates who take over ranking positions in the Student Council.

1. Student Council member Kim Solgat helps to prepare the teacher appreciation breakfast. 2. K. Trombley, A. Sage, S. Yockey, and Mr. Jordan led the Student Council. 3. Winning class of the can drive enjoys eating their prize.

Yearbook Captures All For '90-'91 School Year

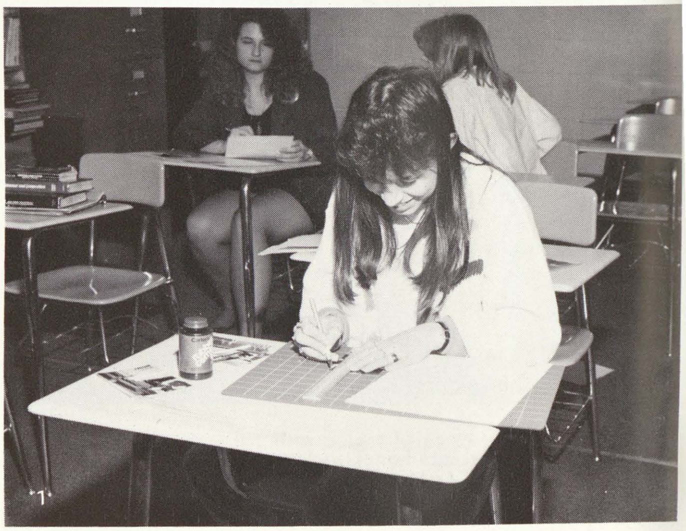

Every day the yearbook staff worked diligently to finish the 128 page book. This souvenir of the entire school was completely done by nine hard-working girls.

Instead of dividing the class into sections like sports and faculty, each student was assigned a number of pages to do themselves.

Under the watchful eye of editor Tonya Russell, they finished the very yearbook you are reading right now!

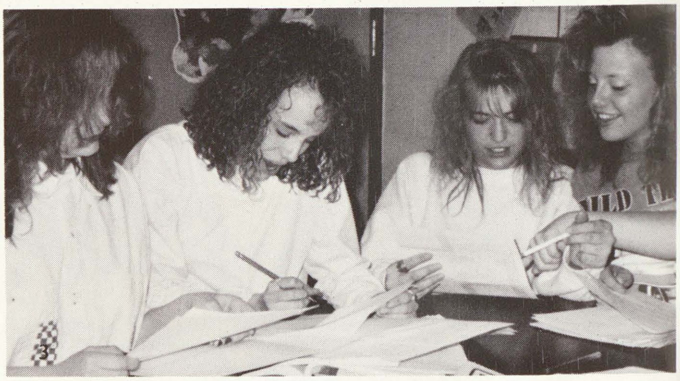

The class really worked to get things done, but everyone had a lot of fun.

Journalism Students Continue To Publish

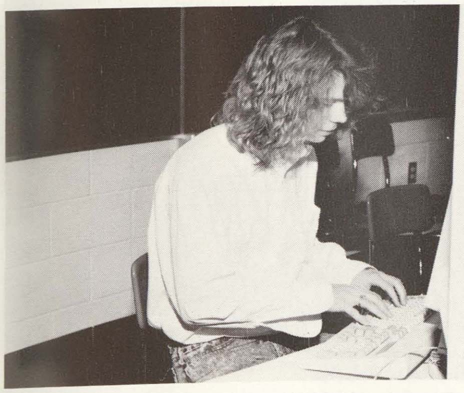

Journalism Makes News

Each month the Journalism class published The Rocket Review to keep us informed and up to date. The students worked each day writing stories that were of interest to us.

Under the leadership of Mr. Matuzak, students learned all the finer points of reporting, editing, and writing news articles.

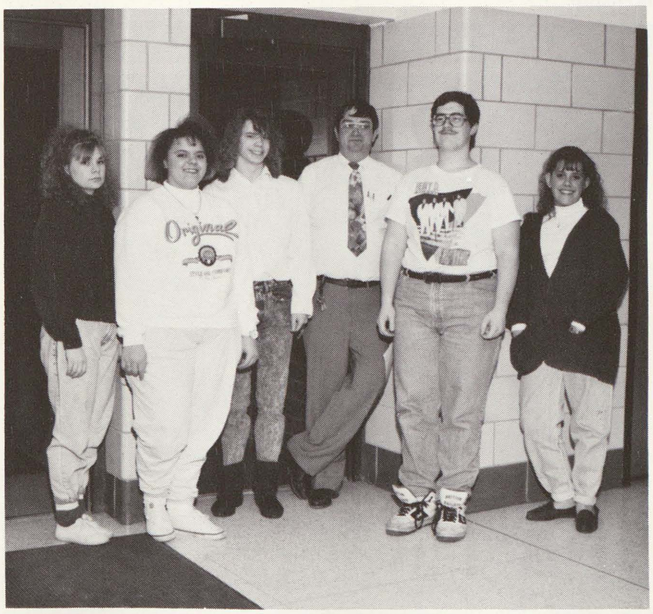

Editor Tonya Russell and the rest of the Journalism students worked very hard and it showed.

The Marching Band showed unbelievable spirit by appearing at the many home games, including Homecoming. The tunes that sounded from their instruments excited the crowd and helped push the team to perform its best.

The Concert Band worked very hard this year. They went to a District Band Festival at Marlette where they received a second overall rating. They participated in a Christmas concert with the Show Choir, and performed a spring concert at the middle school.

The Reese Pep Band members showed their spirit by playing for the boys' basketball games and at assemblies. Their hard work and spirit led to great loyalty. Good job Concert and Pep Band members!

Director Leads Choir Through Many Classics

New Teacher Contributes A Lot

Each afternoon beautiful voices could be heard floating through the cracks of the band room doors. Those voices belonged to 29 excellent singers. The choir did a great job this year with many attending their performances.

A great deal of the credit was due to the instruction of Mr. Herber. Mr. Herber filled large shoes when he took the place of Mrs. Hoffmeister. The choir thanks Mr. Herber for a job well done.

Hard Work, Dedication A Big Part Of Dancing

This year's Reese Modern Dancers worked extremely hard. Practices started in the fall. Hard work and a good attitude was helpful as spring neared and rehearsals increased to close to six hour each weeknight.

These dancers deserve a lot for their time and effort, but Mrs. Susan Wagner, instructor for 20 years, deserves most of the credit for her patience and dedication.

SADD grows each year to make us all aware

This year the Reese High School SADD Chapter, (students against drinking and driving), had the largest membership in its few years of existence. Its many projects have boosted students awareness of the dangers involving drinking and driving.

A few examples of the projects they have done over the past year: In October they held a Bowlathon to raise money; December brought the popular Semi-Formal Christmas Dance; and the chilly month of February contained "Hands off Alcohol." To end the year, SADD held an Awareness/Friendship week.

These pyramids represent students who pledged not to drink and drive or let their friends drive drunk.

Community Shows Support For 'Womanless Wedding'

This year the Academic Boosters tried something different in order to raise money for the scholarship fund. It was a play that was put on by the teachers and citizens of Reese.

The play was called "The Womanless Wedding." It was a great success. Everybody in Reese turned out to view this play. The great success of this event allowed two additional scholarships to be awarded at graduation.

Various performances added to the festivities.

Math Club Members Set Minds On Higher Math

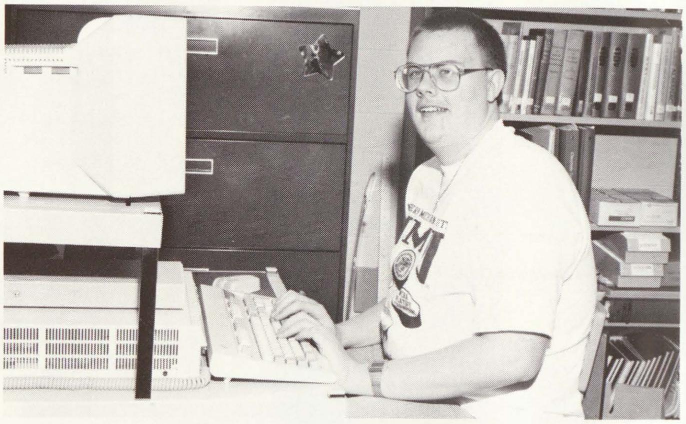

The Math Club spent their first few meetings trying out new ways to find members. After they settled in and added a few members to their club, they were able to get on with the work.

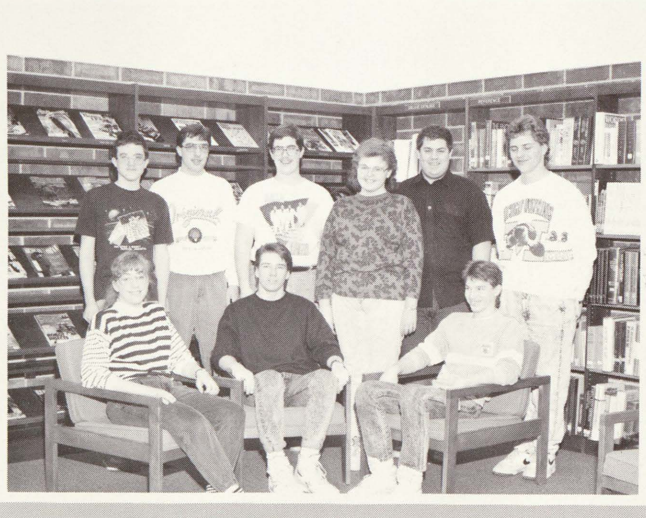

Mr. Weier taught the Math Club important information that can be used during their college years, and also technical computer problem solving. This academic club can have a very difficult time finding new members who want to take there time doing extra work, but this year they had a fine crowd of people to do the work. Good Job Guys!

SST Achieves Success, Competes In State Competition

At the Science Olympiad Regional Competition, the SST took a third place trophy which earned them an invitation to compete at the State Competition at Michigan State University.

While at the Michigan State Competition, the SST team came through for Reese and made us proud. Just making it there alone was quite an accomplishment and then having students come home with medals was excellent.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Math Team Finally Wins

When the Academic teams left the Saginaw Valley State campus on March 23, 1991, they left winners. For the first time in four year, a tean brought home first place honors.

Mr. Weier led his Math team to first place for the first time in the event's history. A second place trophy went to the English team and Mr Matuzak.

The Social Studies team beat Millington in the preliminaries and Kingston in the first round but lost to Vassar in the Semifinals. Science tean lost to Caro in the first round.

Pep Club Adds Colors To Gym At Homecoming.

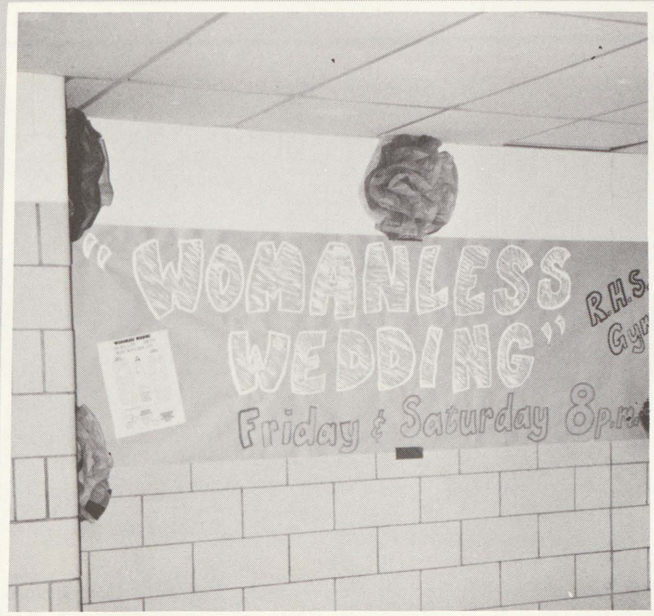

Attention Reese High School: Do you know the organization that spread spirit throughout your halls? Last year, Pep Club did just that. Before almost every home game during football and basketball season, these students spent their afternoons in the art room working on posters and other spirit decorations.

Miss Yaroch led the group in expressing school spirit until February, when Mrs. Anklam took over. They put in long hours of imagination and hard work. Thanks to Pep Club, everyone knows we've got spirit!

Teacher aides correct papers, make copies and run errands

Grading papers, copying dittos, and running errands are some of the work Reese High School teachers give to their aides. They help throughout the year for one hour a day and receive one-half credit.

They relieve the teachers of some of the burden their students give them. Most of the teachers have an aide for at least one hour a day. These students also help the librarian and the office staff.

Their help could not have been appreciated more and the teachers thank them all.

Skill Center prepares students for future

Each morning at 8:25 and each afternoon at 11:45 a Reese Public Schools bus left for its half hour journey to the Tuscola Area Skill Center in Caro. The juniors and seniors that went to the Skill Center chose from classes dealing with graphic arts, cosmetology, child care, and others. The students participated in Olympic games and other fun activities for one week during the year. Attending TASC helped them extend their skills and added new friendships for everyone.

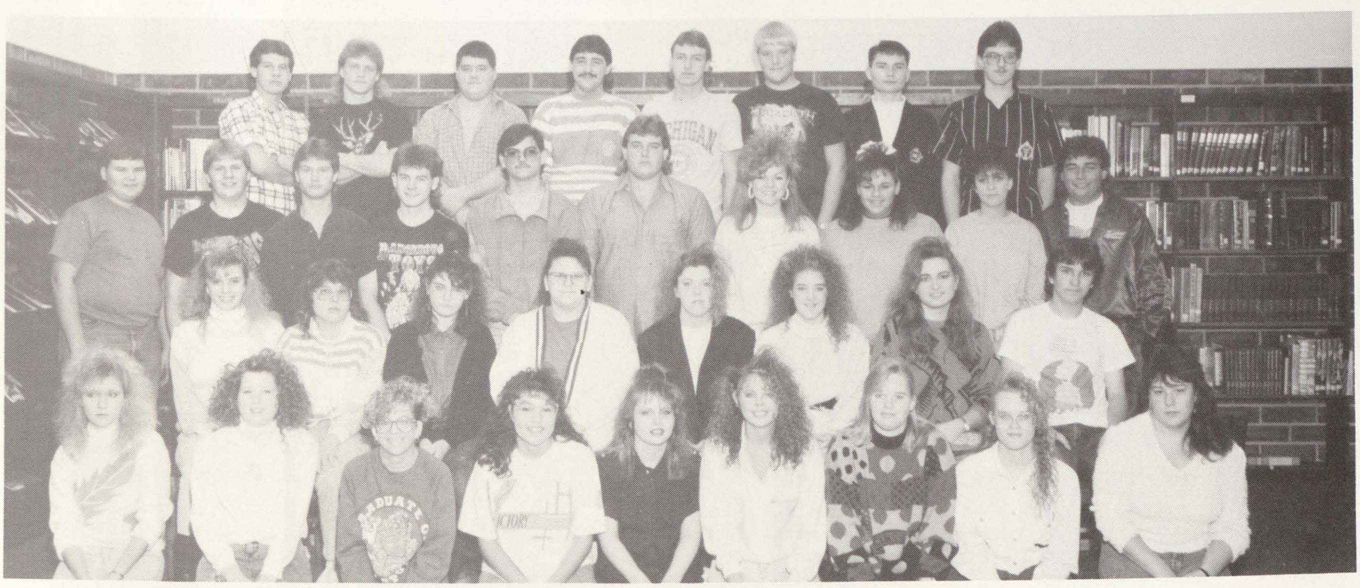

The things these students learned throughout the year at the Skill Center are skills that will last them a lifetime.

The 1990 Girls' Junior Varsity Basketball team finished the season with a 13-7 record. This was an extremely good record considering the number of first year players.

The team was coached by Mr. Grysko who, with any luck, will be back to coach again next year. With Mr. Grysko back next year the girls should be on their way to another winning season.

Girls' C-C takes off running

The air was still and tense as the girls waited at the starting line. Suddenly a loud signal rang out and the Reese Invitational Cross-Country Meet was on.

This was the scene at many of the meets this year. Led by one senior, the eleven girl team managed a respectable season.

In his 19th year of coaching, Mr. Jordan has a team to be proud of. With ten runners returning next year, that team should be even better.

This year's cross country team should be quite proud of themselves. They had a lot of talent and used it to represent Reese to their fullest potential.

We salute them for their devotion and overwhelming effort.

The Reese girls anxiously await the beginning of the day's event.

Cross Country makes tracks

Leadership is what any good team needs to be successful, and this year's cross-country team definitely had it.

Leaving their competition in the dust, these twelve boys ran under many conditions. From late August to early November, they braved the elements and came up with a very good record.

Emerging from these trials were a few fine leaders. One, Jeremy Wilson, even made it to state competition, placing 16th.

JV, Frosh give depth to varsity

The Junior Varsity team spent a season getting used to not having a basketball team which is mostly made up of Freshman.

This year Reese added something a little new. It was called a Freshmen Basketball team. This was a way to get them ready to play on Junior Varsity their sophomore year.

With this new concept, the Boys' were able to spend more time practicing old material rather than learning new strategies with the freshman.

The girls have brought a lot of spirit to RHS. A job well done!

JV Baseball Goes For Record Runs

JV Baseball Goes for the Run

The JV baseball team started out slow, but found their stride early. They ended up with a 12-7 record after a well played season.

The guys put in many hours of hard work under the guidance of Mr. Elliott. The 19-member team practiced all aspects of hitting, fielding, and pitching.

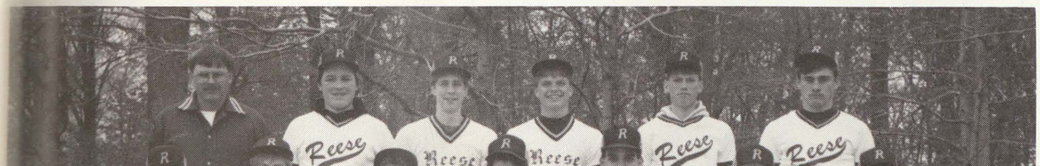

The guys had fun playing and winning. The rain sometimes caused them to miss a game or two but they used that time to mentally train for the next game, they were mentally ready to go to battle. The guys did great.

Varsity Softball Thumb C Champs

The Varsity Softball team had an outstanding year. The new team members and the veteran members worked hard for this years victories. Strong teamwork and great coaching was the necessary combination needed to lead the team to win the Thumb C Championship, for the first time ever.

However, the graduating seniors will be greatly missed. They have worked hard during their past four years. During this time they have contributed an excellent amount to the team. We hope the team will strive for success again next year and take the Thumb C Championship again.
